Title: Outpatient Staff Clinician: ERMHS Program

Ann Martin Center is a leading nonprofit organization that provides mental health services and educational support to at-risk youth in Alameda County. Selected as California Nonprofit of the Year for East Bay Assembly District 15, we are a member of the Alameda Council of Community Mental Health Agencies. Ann Martin Center has over 90 staff that are passionate about improving the lives of at-risk children and families through psychotherapy, educational therapy, and diagnostic assessment. Our clinic is located in Emeryville and we also deliver mental health programs in eleven Oakland schools. Our work promotes resilience, healthy emotional development, and effective learning skills in children. Founded in 1963, the Center is distinguished by its emphasis on both emotional and educational support.

In 2010 Educationally Related Mental Health Services or ERMHS replaced AB3632 legislation. Students who hold an active Individual Education Plans (IEP) with an Emotional Disturbance (ED) designation are given access to clinically relevant therapeutic services in hopes of bolstering the child's ability to access the curriculum, be more present in school, and improve attendance, behavior, and other academically related outcomes. Ann Martin is filling this need with a new program that focuses on increasing efficacious treatment of those students in need. Our program focuses on appropriate child treatment, parent engagement, parent and teacher psychoeducation, and outcome measures for success.

Function

The person in the ERMHS Clinician (EC) role must be able to provide continuous, supportive, treatment to students receiving ERMHS services, The EC is responsible for maintaining positive relationships with school sites, providing students with appropriate treatment based on their individual clinical needs, provide psychoeducation to parents regarding the IEP process, and play an active role during IEP's to provide updates regarding emotional functioning and quarterly progress. They will also be responsible for administering outcome measures/survey that measure treatment efficacy.
